

Turing project in «Tur Cos Ta Posibel Sport» ARUBA

the project

Tur Cos Ta Posibel will host trainees across a number of sporting activities. These include two junior football clubs and a community athletics club where trainees will join the local coaches to deliver sessions on fitness and football/athletics.

Trainees will also link with Ibisa

the Government department responsible for sport in school where they can co-deliver sports clinics in different sports, volleyball, judo, athletics, table tennis and any sports of particular interest to the volunteer(s).

Trainees will have the opportunity to co-deliver sports lessons and tournaments in the local vocational college of Aruba SEPB and also sessions in local community organisations aimed at engaging children and young people in a healthy lifestyle.

We can host individuals trainees 2-12 months or groups of Trainees for 2 weeks.

accommodation and meals

Trainees will live in a shared house with other international participants. Rooms will be shared for volunteer groups and long-term ESC Trainees will either have an individual room or a room shared with one other participant.

Trainees will receive a weekly food allowance as well as a general kitty to be able to buy food and household necessities either individually or as a group.

The accommodation is well located, 5 minutes walk from a local beach and with all the appliances and equipment needed for self catering and learning to cook the local food.

There is a shared car and 4 bikes which can be used by trainees.

the project place Aruba

Pos Chiquito where trainees live is a local community towards the south of the island, serviced with a supermarket, laundrette, snack-van and DIY stores for household necessities. There is a lovely beach just over 5 minutes' walk, a local beach bar (frequented by locals not tourists) and three restaurants in walking distance. The main tourist attractions are in the North of the island around Palm Beach and Noord where there is also a large supermarket (Superfoods) worth the drive for a large weekly shop. The capital Oranjestad is a 15 minute drive or 20 minutes on the bus. The airport is situated 10 minutes from the accommodation.
