Turing project at Caprifolen SWEDEN

the project

Caprifolen is a horse centre for rehab, mostly for people with disabilities. Horse sports (vaulting mostly) both training and competitions, camps, musical, circus and performance.

Trainees will help with the training and education of horses. They will also help taking care of the horses and the stables everyday needs. The weekly activities at Caprifolen are rehab, vaulting, circus, gymnastic and dance training for young people in different groups with or with disabilities. Every year Caprifolen arranges competitions in vaulting and PARA-vaulting, musical performance for large audience both at Caprifolen and on other places. And summer camps for young people from all over Sweden. Trainees will have different tasks after interested and skills in the different arrangement. It can be taking bigger responsibility for the horses, documentation, do the warm-up, social media, prepping the arena for competitions or shows, training horses for circus tricks together with the members, and so on.

accommodation and meals

The trainees will stay at Caprifolen horse centre in a clubhouse and camp area, 200 meters from where the horses live. In their house there is a kitchen where they can cook all their food, and also shared bathrooms. For transportation there is a car if the trainees have driving license and bikes if not.

Caprifolen will help with shopping if needed. When Caprifolen have events or summer camps. We will do the cooking and the trainees will eat with us.
