

KA1 Vocational Education Training Project at Deltadyo NGO GREECE

the project

The project is hosted by Deltadyo NGO in cooperation with the Parents' Association of Primary School of Arhilohos-Marpissa. The main idea is to make the schoolyard and the inner spaces of the school more attractive, interactive, inclusive, playful and multidimensional for the children of the school. First part of the project already took place in April 2022 when german volunteers built up a nice wooden playground with climbing and swinging activities in the schoolyard. The whole design process of the schoolyard has been a participatory one, with children expressing their ideas and dreams for their school.

There is open space for creativity and ideas to be implemented, having always the safety regulations of public school in Greece in mind. Support also is needed in making "corners" in the school for all different ways of play and expression, trying to make all the children of the school happy and smily.

accommodation and meals

The accommodation will be a nice simple small hotel, in double rooms. Each room will have its own toilet. The hotel is situated very close to the beach.
