

EVERYTHING IS POSSIBLE®

Turing project at the Donkey Sanctuary Aruba ARUBA

the project

Trainees will have the opportunity to work across several animal care organisations.

This will include working at the Aruban Donkey Sanctuary, feeding, cleaning and helping with visitors, working at Sgt

Peppers rescue centre helping to care for stray/abandoned animals.

Also working with a dog trapping organisation which helps to rescue and castrate stray dogs to alleviate the problem of strays on the island and with a local vet practice, helping with treating and operating on a variety of animals.

Dependant on the time of year students may observe a nesting or hatching of sea turtles.

accommodation and meals

The trainees will stay in accommodation in Pos Chiquito, sharing 3- 4 to a room. The accommodation is within walking distance of the local beach, a small supermarket and food trucks and is on the main bus route to the tourist areas.

The accommodation is equipped with all appliances needed for self catering and students will receive a weekly food allowance to shop for supplies
